

The Bear Mountain Flyers

Present

The 3rd annual Wild West Pattern Showdown

April 22 & 23 2017 - Arvin, CA

CDs: Team BMF

AMA Sanction #901

Mark your calendar and join us for the 3rd annual Wild West Pattern Showdown hosted by The Bear Mountain Flyers. Get ready for 2 days of non stop AMA pattern action at one of southern California's premier flying facilities. This years event will be dedicated to the memory of our friend Steve Helms. Participants will be invited to share their memories of Steve prior to the contest.

→→→

All AMA classes will be offered, including FAI Silver.

FAI will include (4) rounds of "P" and (2) rounds of "F"

Our field will be available for practice during the week preceding the contest.

→→→

Designer trophies you can be proud to display will be awarded to 3rd place. In addition, special awards will be presented with raffle prizes from some of your favorite suppliers and vendors.

→→→

Entry fee is $50 for all classes. Please pre-register on the NSRCA website. AMA membership is required. Overnight RV camping is available; no hookups. Catered lunch will be offered on both days for a nominal fee. Chefs Dale & Frank will contribute their unique culinary talents to our traditional Saturday night dinner at the field.

A special group discount at the Holiday Inn Express on Hughes Lane in Bakersfield, (telephone 661-883-3000) will be available.

Please ask for the reservations manager and reference this event.

→→→

Please see our event thread on RC Universe in the Pattern Flying forum or follow us on Facebook for late breaking information. Field location, maps and additional information can be found at www.bearmountainflyers.com

Pilots' meeting Saturday @ 8:30AM

Wheels up @ 9:00AM

